

Hanover woman promoted by firm

Wendy Harris, a Hanover resident and product distributor for Symmetry, was recently promoted from business partner to the new senior marketing manager level with the company.

Symmetry is a direct-selling company offering nutritional products to help people improve their health and wellness.

Harris began working with Symmetry in November 2002.

When Symmetry was founded more than a decade ago, Rudy Revak's vision was to provide a product line of nutritional supplements to help people reach their full potential.
